

Super Curriculum – Year 12
Subject: English Language & Literature

Reading Task

Research Task

Listening Task

Watching Task

Location to Visit

Creative Task

Writing Task

Independent Project

 Submit a blog to the English Language Google classroom regarding your interpretations of the studied texts or others	 Visit The British Library - https://www.bl.uk/events	 Arrange a visit to a local primary school to research how students learn to read and write
 Set up a blog where you write about an issue or subject important to you	 Listen to Word of Mouth podcasts on BBC Radio 4 iPlayer	 Research how language is used to uphold power – visit the Royal Courts of Justice, download political speeches from the Gov.co.uk, etc.
 'You Say Potato' or 'Spell it out' by David Crystal	 Read opinion-based writings such as: https://www.independent.co.uk/voices	 Read opinion-based writings such as: https://www.theguardian.com/lifeandstyle/series/modern-tribes
 Cheltenham Literary Festival. 7 th – 16 th October 2022. https://www.cheltenhamfestivals.com/literature/	 Listen to BBC Radio 4s Book at Bedtime to help you relax!	 Subscribe to the Times Literary Supplement https://www.the-tls.co.uk/
 Listen to podcasts, from Gresham College https://www.gresham.ac.uk/watch/?subject=art-and-literature	 'The Wonders of Language: Or: How to Make Noises and Influence People' by Ian Roberts	 'The Language Instinct: How the Mind Creates Language' by Steven Pinker