

What is the course about?

This course allows students to develop their knowledge and understanding of themes relating to the culture and society of countries where Spanish is spoken, and their language skills. They will do this by using authentic spoken and written sources in Spanish.

Course content

Topics to be studied include:

- Aspects of Hispanic society social
- Artistic culture in the Hispanic work
- Multiculturalism in Hispanic society
- Aspects of political life in Hispanic society
- Specific topic areas of cinema and literature
- In-depth study of a literary text and a film

Assessment

Three terminal examinations including listening, reading, writing and speaking.

Career pathways

Students who study A Level Spanish can progress onto language-related degree courses in higher education.

Employment opportunities: interpreter, teacher, translator, journalist, international aid worker, tourism.

Entry criteria

Minimum of five 5 to 9 grades at GCSE, including at least a grade 6 in GCSE Spanish.